The Learning Resource Center (LRC) and the Kentucky Textbook Adoption Program

We receive one copy of all textbooks that the Kentucky Department of Education reviews for adoption. They are on display for teachers and students to browse.

Areas include:

- Arts and Humanities (includes visual arts, music, foreign languages, theatre, dance and humanities)
- Language Arts (includes handwriting, spelling, journalism, speech, reading and literature, and basal readers)
- Mathematics
- Science
- Social Studies
- Vocational Studies and Practical Living (includes all vocational areas, computer education, health, physical education and drivers education)

Teaching Aides

Puppets, globes, games, posters, math manipulatives, calculators, and even sculpture may be checked out.

Book Collection

Our curriculum guides, sample textbooks (K-12), and books to support instruction are arranged by Dewey Decimal classification numbers.

Easy Reader books include board books, picture books, wordless and concept books, and oversized books for use in the classroom.

Fiction books consist of classics as well as chapter books. All genres of children's literature are represented.

Award winning books including the Caldecott, Newbery, Coretta Scott King, and Kentucky Bluegrass award books are available and labeled.

Assistance is available in LRC Monday thru Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and on Sunday from 4 to 9 p.m.

Audiovisual Collection

The LRC contains a large number of instructional and entertainment DVDs and videos.

Music and books on CD, audio tapes, and media players (mp3 players) are available for check out. We also have music department recitals on CD.

Computer software can be checked out and used in the library, classroom, or at home.
